

Fukuoka — What to meet

► FUKUOKA CITY Official Tourist Guide: <https://gofukuoka.jp/>

♦ Quick orientation (where things sit)

Fukuoka Airport (FUK) is very close to the city center — the subway (Kūkō / Airport Line) links the airport, Hakata and Tenjin quickly.

► Fukuoka Airport Official Website: <https://www.fukuoka-airport.jp/en/>

Hakata Station is the city's main rail hub (Shinkansen, JR lines). Tenjin is the main downtown/shopping area west of Hakata. Nishijin is northwest of Tenjin (served by the Fukuoka City Subway / Chikuhi Line via Nishijin Station).

♦ Top sights & short notes (what to visit)

- Fukuoka Tower & Momochi Seaside Park — panoramic views, seaside park and modern shopping nearby.
- Ohori Park & Maizuru (castle ruins) park — pleasant walkable green spaces, great for rental boats and sunrise/sunset.
- Canal City Hakata — big shopping/entertainment complex (family friendly).
- Hakata Old Town (Tocho-ji, Kushida Shrine, Hakata Gion Yamakasa) — historical shrines and festivals, plus famous Hakata (tonkotsu) ramen and yatai (street-food stalls).
- Dazaifu Tenmangū — short train trip out of the city, a major shrine popular with visitors.

Public transport basics

Subway is the fastest for airport ⇔ city:

- Airport (Kūkō) Line connects Fukuoka Airport → Hakata → Tenjin → Nakasu.

Trains run frequently (~every 5–10 min).

- Typical airport → Tenjin journey ~9–10 minutes; airport → Hakata ~3–5 minutes.

Fares are modest (two-hundred yen range for short hops).
